

Land with Common rights in Castor and Ailsworth

Castor and Ailsworth were one of the last areas to be enclosed compared with much of England. Proceedings were finally concluded in 1898. There are five areas within the parishes of Castor and Ailsworth over which there are common rights shown in the map.

Common Land C&A

Legend

- Registered Common Land (England)
- Parishes (GB)

As part of our Joint Community Action Plan we will look at :

- Validation of the ownership of the land with common rights and the nature of the rights themselves
- The re-registration of land which we believe had rights of public access clearly defined following the Enclosure Act of 1898. We will do this under the provisions of The Commons Registration (England) Act 2014.
